Data Protection Act 1998 (DPA): consent to the use of images

The Saffron Walden U3A (SWU3A) is required by the Information Commissioner under the DPA to obtain your consent to the use of your image in Update (the SWU3A magazine), on our website and in any other promotional material. In order to comply with this requirement please read the following statements and amend them as appropriate, signing at the bottom where indicated.

I CONSENT/DO NOT CONSENT* to the use of my image on www.saffronwaldenu3a.org.uk for the purpose of illustrating the work and activities of the SWU3A.

I understand that I can withdraw my consent to the website image/s at any time by notifying the Membership Secretary in writing (including e-mail) and that any images of me on <http://www.saffronwaldenu3a.org.uk> will be withdrawn from the website within one month of receipt of notification.

I CONSENT/DO NOT CONSENT* to the use of my image being in Update and in other SWU3A promotional material. I understand that once the magazine has gone to press, or the promotional material has been issued, I cannot withdraw my consent.

Where I have not consented to the use of my image, I agree to make this clear to the coordinator of the class or organiser of the activity in which I am participating, as well as the photographer, and will take all reasonable steps to ensure I am not in any photographs.
